Before you go

- The free personal item is 18 × 14 × 8 in — it must fit under the seat. The overhead carry-on costs extra.
- Frontier uses a personal-item sizer at the gate and enforces it more consistently than legacy U.S. carriers.
- Paying at the gate is much more expensive than pre-purchasing online — add the bag when you book.
- A half-full bag compresses into the sizer; a stuffed one bulges past 8 in and gets flagged.
