Before you go

- The free small bag is 40 × 30 × 20 cm — a small backpack or holdall. Anything bigger needs Priority.
- Ryanair uses a physical sizer at the gate and enforces it strictly. Bags that don't fit are gate-checked at a high fee.
- Wheels and handles count toward the dimensions. Measure your packed bag, not the empty one.
- Depth (20 cm) is the usual failure point for backpacks — a 40L pack rarely clears it.
